Preparing the game

Gather the materials

A complete list of all game materials that you need for 1 game run. The list with full specifications is available in the separate file - List of materials (Moderator).

*Print out the checklist with a list of materials and check out if you have everything!

Prepare as a moderator

1. Read through all materials marked with "(Moderator)" and "(Players)".
2. Check out other game materials to know what to expect during the game.

You can print out some of the materials for moderator, they might be helpful during the game.

Arrange the table

1. You will need:
 - 1 big table (you will have to fit there game board - A2, crisis track - A3, and players' boards - 6 boards on A5 and A4)
 - 1 smaller table (you will have to fit there at least 2 pieces of A4)
 - 9 chairs
 - 1 additional small table or chair (for game materials for moderator)
 - Flipchart
2. Place the map on the table and arrange the player-boards according to the scheme you can find in the separate file - Table setting (Moderator).
3. Place the safety and wellbeing markers on the boards.

You don't have to use exact markers. You can be creative with what you use for the boards and tracks.

4. Prepare the map:

Place the families cards on the specific map tiles according to the initial setting and the guide below. Make sure that all the cards are on their "normal" side (NOT "crisis" side (black side)).
